Thursday, 30th November

SAINT ANDREW, APOSTLE
PATRON OF SCOTLAND

Andrew lived in the first century: a fisherman by trade, together with his brother Simon. He was called by Christ to one of the twelve. According to Tradition he preached the Gospel in Greece, where he was martyred. St Andrew is the patron of Greece and Scotland, amongst other places.

Entrance Antiphon: Beside the Sea of Galilee, the Lord saw two brothers, Peter and Andrew, and he said to them: Come after me and I will make you fishers of men.

The Gloria is said.

First Reading: Romans 10:9-18
Faith comes from what is preached, and what is preached comes from the word of Christ.

Responsorial Psalm: Their word goes forth through all the earth.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Follow me, says the Lord, and I will make you into fishers of men. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 4:18-22
And they left their nets at once and followed him.

Communion Antiphon: Andrew told his brother Simon: We have found the Messiah, the Christ, and he brought him to Jesus.

Friday, 1st December

St Edmund Campion, Priest & Martyr

Edmund was born in 1540 in London. He studied at Oxford and took the Oath of Supremacy but later recanted and returned to Catholicism. He joined the Jesuits, was ordained a priest and, three years later, was martyred on this day in 1581 at Tyburn Hill.

Entrance Antiphon: We are given over to death for Jesus, that the life of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh.

First Reading: 1 Corinthians 4:9-13
We have been put on show in front of the whole universe.

Responsorial Psalm: Together let us praise the name of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! When the storm is over the wicked man is no more, but the virtuous stand firm for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 9:23-26
What gain for a man to have won the whole world and to have lost his very self.

Communion Antiphon: Neither death nor life nor anything in all creation can come between us and Christ's love for us.
