...FROM FR. MICHAEL...

THANK YOU to Paola for chairing our AGM last Sunday and for presenting her report on the year's activities – so much to celebrate and be proud of and yet so many issues to challenge us!

Thank you to Michael for presenting the financial accounts for the year ending December 2016. At one level we appear to have a very healthy balance sheet, but the main reason for that is regular income from several rental properties.

Thank you to those who shared in the meeting for your remarks, questions and support. And we are still looking for a twelfth member of the Parish Pastoral Council! Volunteer please!

Praying for Vocations. We continue to pray for Friar Gerard Mary Toman due to be ordained deacon with the Conventual Friars in Oxford on the 30th July and for John Waters at the Venerable English College in Rome. Pray for all vocations. Pray for Deacon Paul and Catechist Barbara. Pray for me and pray for one another. And please support the Day of Prayer before the Blessed Sacrament on Saturday. Make our church a powerhouse of prayer, and sign up for a slot during that day on the list in the entrance area.

An invitation to share a picnic in the Presbytery Garden from 12.15pm Sunday 2nd July. Please bring food to share. Drinks provided. Food to be left in the parish room before the 11.15am Mass. The 11.15am Mass will be the main Mass that day and the 9.30am will be a 'short quiet' Mass!

PITCHING OF TENTS and setting up tables from 10.30am Saturday 1st July. Volunteers please!!

!!!!SUMMER FESTIVAL & PARISH GARDEN PARTY!!!!
Sunday 2nd July. Book the date! 11.15am Mass.
