EASTER SUNDAY

GOD, who for our redemption didst give thine only-begotten Son to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection hast delivered us from the power of our enemy: grant us so to die daily unto sin that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life; through the same thy Son Jesus Christ who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

ABOUT OUR COMMUNITY

The Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham was established in 2011 by Pope Benedict XVI to allow Anglicans to enter into the full communion of the Catholic Church whilst retaining much of their heritage and traditions. We exist to promote the unity of all Christians with the Apostolic See, and faithfully to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ through the rich treasures of our traditions. You are very welcome to the Coventry community of the ordinariate, and hope you will join us again.

For your prayers this week...

The sick/housebound: June Dunn, Niall Quinn, Gabriel, Julie Vanstone, Nicholas Fry, James Burgess, June, Joan Taylor, Norma Urbani, Nadine Robinson, Eleanor Birtles, Brian McLaughlin, Sheena Huscroft, Sue Scott, Emilia Alice Hill, Fiona McAllister, Fiona, Fiona Forman, Charlotte

Home communicants: Evelyn & Jack Gannon, Brian McLaughlin

Recently departed:

Anniversaries of death: Christopher McLaughlin (22nd)

A VERY HAPPY EASTER TO YOU May I take this opportunity to wish you and your loved ones a very happy Easter. May you know the joy and peace of the Risen Lord in your hearts. Also to thank you for your very generous Easter gifts.

EASTER EGG HUNT AND BRING & SHARE LUNCH Please, if you are able, stay around after Mass for lunch in the hall and the Easter Egg hunt in the church grounds. When the children have found the eggs, Fr Paul will bless them.

AN ENORMOUS THANKYOU to everybody for making the Easter Triduum such a fitting celebration of the Lord's death and resurrection. Thanks particularly to our readers, servers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, those who led prayers, Michael for providing us with music and to our flower arrangers who have worked their usual wonders in filling the church with such beautiful displays. Your efforts are very much appreciated.

EASTER MONDAY MASS As is customary, Bishop Kenney, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Birmingham, will celebrate the Easter Monday Mass at St. Osburg's at 10am for the deanery.

DIVINE WORSHIP is the form of the Roman Rite of the Mass authorised for use in the ordinariate. Its language and many of the prayers included give expression to those aspects of the Anglican tradition which have been welcomed into the Catholic Church through the establishment of the ordinariate.

Christ is risen indeed!

O blessed day of the Resurrection, which of old time was called the Queen of Festivals, and raised among Christians an anxious, nay contentious diligence duly to honour it! Blessed day, once only passed in sorrow, when the Lord actually rose, and the disciples believed not; but ever since a day of joy to the faith and love of the Church! In ancient times, Christians all over the world began it with a morning salutation. Each man said to his neighbour, 'Christ is risen'; and his neighbour answered him, 'Christ is risen indeed, and hath appeared unto Simon'. Even to Simon, the coward disciple who denied him thrice, Christ is risen; even to us who long ago vowed to obey him, and yet so often denied him before men, so often taken part in sin, and followed the world, when Christ called us another way – Christ is risen.

From the sermons of Blessed John Henry Newman
