Readers & Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Just a polite reminder that anyone exercising a ministry within the Sanctuary of the Church should be dressed appropriately especially in the warmer weather.

Gentlemen should wear full length trousers not shorts; Ladies' skirts and short trousers should be a respectful and modest length, i.e. to their knees and shoulders and chest covered.

All of us perhaps could remember to dress appropriately for Mass. Our Muslim neighbours wouldn't dream of entering a Mosque half dressed. We Christians could take a leaf out of their book when thinking about what to wear in Church.

All goods should be stowed away for the duration of the Mass.

"The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life."

1. Our dignity as baptized children of God.
"For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ." [Gal 3:27]
2. The sacredness of the Church as the House of God and the Eucharistic celebration urge all participants to dress and manifest the importance of what they are doing.
"The mystery of the Eucharist has found historical expression not only in the demand for an interior disposition of devotion, but also in outward forms meant to evoke and emphasize the grandeur of the event being celebrated." [Ecclesia de Eucharistia, no. 49]

St. Anne's Parish - "Red Mission" Boxes

If you have a "Red" Mission box at home, can you please bring it in to St. Anne's Church for counting by the 8th July please. If anyone would like a "Red" Mission box to collect for the APF then please speak with Anne Upton.

Sea Sunday - Apostleship of the Sea 7th/8th July

The second collection for this weekend is for the Apostleship of the Sea, which is the official maritime welfare and mission agency of the Catholic Church in Great Britain.

The Majority of ships on the sea are cargo ships. These ships may be large but crew quarters are generally small. A crew member maybe at sea several weeks or even months without a day off or seeing their family.

Supporting the Apostleship of the Sea means that a ship can receive a visit, see a friendly face, or someone to talk to. The Apostleship of the Sea provides seafarers with help to get ashore, they also provide warm winter clothing, faith resources to sustain them and Mass when possible.

If you are a UK tax payer then please use an Apostleship of the Sea Gift Aid Envelope for the second collection on this weekend 7th/8th July.

These are available at the back of both churches.

Thank you!
