SECOND COLLECTION TODAY FOR CATHOLIC EDUCATION

FROM FR.MICHAEL

"You must love your neighbour as yourself!" Today we celebrate harvest, the gift of so many good things that God affords us. The greatest gift of all is the gift of love, made real for us in the neighbourliness of Jesus. Jesus doesn't just come close to us. Jesus gives himself to us in bread and wine. May we give ourselves to one another, and especially to the poor and lonely.

We welcome today Jessica Moore who is going to talk to us about "Good Neighbours Coventry" – supporting older people in the community.

CATECHETICAL PROGRAMS FOR THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR

Sunday School for families preparing children for First Holy Communion. In conjunction with the work the children will be doing at school, children and parents are invited to come to church at 9.00am on a series of Sunday mornings through the year to explore together what it means to share in the Mass and Holy Communion.

Confirmation Program centred on the Easter Vigil – a series of Saturday evenings and Sunday mornings to explore some of the themes of Easter – again in conjunction with the work being done in the classroom.

First Session – Saturday 16th September "Silence and Chips"
