FOURTH ROTARY FESTIVAL OF CHRISTMAS TREES HOLY TRINITY CHURCH, BROADGATE, COVENTRY

Following the success of the first three festivals, something magical is happening again with an amazing display of Christmas trees adorning the historic Holy Trinity Church, Broadgate, commencing Wednesday 12th December until Sunday 30th December 2018.

Rotarian Ken Holmes, Past President of the Rotary Club of Coventry states "We look forward to joy, happiness and the wonder of Christmas and what better way to get into the mood than to visit Holy Trinity to see the full glory and beauty of the Festival of Christmas Trees"

Rotary is organising this Festival in partnership with Holy Trinity Church, in support of Rotary charities.

Past President Ken Holmes invites schools, charities, organisations and businesses to provide and display a tree. For details please contact 024 7630 7539 or 07931 737298 or ken.holmes@live.co.uk

There is no charge to display a tree, although contributions of £10 is requested if you wish to have a pop up banner alongside your tree.

A prize will be awarded to the best School/Youth Organisation tree, and a second prize for all other charities/ organisations / businesses. Each prize will be for £150.

We are looking for 100 trees, so early response is important to secure your place in this amazing event.

It will also be possible for small groups of singers or musicians to provide festive music (by prior booking) to add festive atmosphere to the occasion.

As a climax to the Festival, a grand concert by local choirs will be given on Friday 14th December at 7.00 pm. Tickets: adults £10, children free. Two free tickets will be given for each 8 tickets purchased. Do reserve your tickets by confirming your requirements now and avoid disappointment.

Yours sincerely

Rtn Ken Holmes
