The readings of today's Mass mention about wedding feast. Indeed, in the 1st reading we will hear of a message of hope for God's people; a new wedding feast between God and his people. This prophecy was fulfilled in Jesus, who replaced the old order with the new. This is symbolised by the changing of water into wine at a wedding in Cana as we will hear in the gospel. Wine is a symbol of love and happiness. This wine came into our world with Jesus and is available to those who realise their need of this wine. There are many things in our spiritual lives that should be changed; especially when the wine runs out. Remember that Jesus' power is available to us. Today is the Day of Prayer for Peace on Earth, let us ask God to transform our lives so that we may become his loving witness to bring love, peace and joy on earth as Mary did at a wedding in Cana.
