If you have a heart to serve others either by enjoying a cup of tea and a chat or fundraising then this might be just for you. If you would like further information please speak with, Debbie Middleton or Caroline Duignan or phone Alison Cullinane on 02476 441 436.

MASS INTENTIONS

We are experiencing high demand again at the moment: there are several months' worth of intentions pending. If you are willing to share your intention with another one, please write 'willing to share' on the envelope—for obvious reasons this makes it easier to offer your intention sooner. It is simply not possible to guarantee any date absolutely: someone else might have got there first. Demand for Sunday at 9am is especially strong—due to that high demand it is simply impossible to say all the Masses as soon as all donors might wish and we apologise for the wait. Thank you for your understanding.

NIGHT SHELTER DONATIONS

A huge thank you for the many donations of clothing already received and enjoyed by the guests at St Osburg Centre. There is a box in the porch.

CARRIERS OF HOPE

Donations of food are needed by this charity that supports refugees, migrants, the newly rehoused, struggling parents and others in need in Coventry.

FINANCE... Thank you for all that you give in time, money or effort.

Last week - Main: £905.70 Second: Parish Development: £680.17 Standing Orders : £672.33
In 2017 it cost £1,503 a week to run the parish. (2016 £1,589 2015 £1,510 2014 £1,966)

The Sunday Readings

When the prophet is granted a glimpse of the glory of God, he is overcome by both the splendour of what he sees and the realisation of how poorly humanity responds to God. Through God's mercy in forgiving him his failings, Isaiah is willing to fulfil God's plan for him. He responds with faith and commitment.

Peter, in today's Gospel, has been impressed enough by what he has heard Jesus say to try something very unlikely: to go out fishing again immediately after returning with nothing. 'Put out into the deep' is the Lord's command. The enormity of the catch he makes when he does as Jesus says, almost overwhelms the boat. More importantly,

Peter is overwhelmed by the power of Jesus and he feels that his own sinfulness is glaringly revealed in contrast to the perfection and power of Christ. But God in Jesus accepts Peter, regardless of his faults, for in His mercy God can forgive those sins. It is this acceptance, mercy and love that compels Peter to give up his job and follow Jesus. That same acceptance, mercy, love and call is offered to us today. If we believe that, how can we not respond too?

LIVE SIMPLY NOTICEBOARD

The noticeboard in church (on the confessionals side) has been updated with lots of information. Do have a look. Thank you to Mary for this.

ST THOMAS MORE SCHOOL

Please pray for the school this week as governors and candidates go through the appointment process for a new head teacher. May the Holy Spirit be at work guiding all who are taking part so that the right person may be appointed.

PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP...

POPE FRANCIS ON TODAY'S GOSPEL

Peter experiences his smallness, the immensity of the word and the power of Jesus; Peter knows his weakness, his ups and downs... as we all know our own, as is known in the history of violence and division... a history which has not always found us sharing the boat, the storm, the misfortunes. But in the same way as Simon, Jesus invites us to put out into the deep, he prompts us to take shared risks, to leave behind our selfishness and to follow him; to give up our fears which do not come from God, which paralyse us and prevent us becoming artisans of peace, promoters of life.
Bogota, Colombia, 8 September 2017

BISHOP ROBERT BYRNE, Cong Orat

Bishop Robert, an auxiliary bishop in the archdiocese with particular responsibility for Birmingham and Worcestershire parishes, has been appointed by Pope Francis to be the next Bishop of Hexham and Newcastle. Please pray for him as he takes up his new ministry.

PARISH FILM NIGHT LAWRENCE OF ARABIA

6pm SAT 2 MARCH MRR

starring Peter O'Toole and directed by David Lean. Big story, big scenery, big score, big action! We hope to show something in late Lent on the Passion and Resurrection. Details soon. Meanwhile, sign up for a night with TE Lawrence, an enigmatic leader who found himself in the desert and struggled without it. The list is in the porch: the cost of £4.00 is for the food—fish (or pie) and chips. Tea and coffee provided, please bring anything else you might like to drink.

BILL OF THE MONTH...

At the end of last month the first of our four quarterly payments to support the work of the diocese and its schools was paid: £4,420.36, or £17,681.44 a year. Three quarters of that goes to diocesan schools. About 17 of our 50 Sunday collections go to make that amount. It is largely calculated according to congregation size. There is nothing we can do to reduce that levy, unlike saving gas and electricity.

ARRANGING A WEDDING

Congratulations on your engagement! Please speak to one of the clergy in the first place to make arrangements for your wedding. You will need a meeting with the Parish Priest to go through all that needs to be done. About six months' notice at least is desirable: but it's never too soon.

ARRANGING A BAPTISM

(CHRISTENING) for BABIES
& YOUNG CHILDREN

Congratulations on the birth of your child! Baptism is arranged by appointment. It usually happens at 12.15 p.m. on a Sunday or at either Sunday Mass. Parents should collect a form after Sunday Mass. For the baptism of children over four and of adults see the parish priest.

MAKING YOUR CONFESSION

Our God is a God of mercy! Confession, the sacrament of reconciliation, is available on Saturday mornings 9.40 a.m.-10.20 a.m., on Sundays before 6 p.m. Mass and by arrangement with the parish priest.

ADORING THE LORD: EXPOSITION

There are regular opportunities each week to pray before the Blessed Sacrament exposed on the altar. Saturdays from 9.30 a.m. (following Mass) and Mondays 7.00 p.m.

If you need to ask anything that can wait until Sunday—we 100% guarantee you can catch the clergy in church then! Otherwise contact details are on the front of this sheet
