LIGHT REFLECTION:

Mum had just returned from shopping and was surveying the ghastly scene in the living room. The family computer had been totally smashed into a dozen pieces.

"What happened to the PC?" she asked of her 14 year old son.

"That was dad's doing," he replied. "As usual he couldn't get it to do what he wanted. I told him to reboot it. That's exactly what he did."

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

My laptop was driving me crazy. "The A, E, and I keys always stick," I complained to a friend.

She quickly diagnosed the problem, "Your computer is suffering from irritable vowel syndrome."

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

A computer-illiterate called the help desk asking how to change his password.

"Okay," I said, after punching in a few keys. "Log in using the password 123456."

"Is that all in caps?" he asked.

God bless!
