

Gospel: John 10:31-42

They wanted to arrest Jesus then, but he eluded them.

Communion Antiphon: Jesus bore our sins in his own body on the cross, so that dead to sin, we might live for righteousness. By his wounds we have been healed.

Saturday, 4th April

Weekday of Lent
Comm. Of St Isidore,

bishop and doctor of the Church

Isidore died in 636, age 76. He lived in turbulent times in the Church in Spain. Isidore reunited Spain, making it a centre of culture and learning, a teacher and guide for other European countries. Born in Cartagena of a family that included three other saints, he was educated by his elder brother, whom he succeeded as bishop of Seville. An amazingly learned man, he was sometimes called "The Schoolmaster of the Middle Ages." Isidore is the Patron of computers and the Internet.

Entrance Antiphon: O Lord, do not stay afar off; my strength, make haste to help me! For I am a worm and no man, scorned by everyone, despised by the people.

First Reading: Ezekiel 37:21-28
I will make them into one nation.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord will guard us as a shepherd guards his flock.

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory! God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son; everyone who believes in him has eternal life. Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Gospel: John 11:45-56
To gather together in unity the scattered children of God.

Communion Antiphon: Christ was handed over, to gather into one the scattered children of God.
