When leprosy broke out among the people of the Hawaiian Islands in the middle of the 19th century, the government authorities responded by establishing a leper colony on the remote island of Molokai. The victims were snatched by force from their families and sent to this island to perish. However, moved by their terrible plight, a young Belgian priest, Damien De Veuster, asked permission from his superiors to minister to them. Straightaway he realized that there was only one effective way to do this, and that was to go and live among them. Having got permission, he went to Molokai. At first, he tried to minister to the lepers while maintaining a certain distance. But he soon realized that he had to live among them in order to gain their trust. As a result, he contracted leprosy himself. The reaction of the lepers was immediate and wholehearted. They embraced him and took him to their hearts. He was now one of them. There was no need, no point anymore, in keeping his distance. The lepers had someone who could talk with authority about leprosy, about brokenness, about rejection and public shame. Today's Gospel tells us how, by receiving the baptism of repentance, Jesus became identified with the sinners whom he had come to save.

This Tuesday night and Wednesday there will be a Funeral Reception and Mass for Sister Sabina at Selly Park in Birmingham. I know that this will not be convenient for many people in Coventry, so very kindly Fr David Gnosill has arranged a Mass at Corpus Christi this Tuesday evening, 14th January at 7.00pm. This will give people a chance to attend a service in Coventry. I am sure this will be of interest to lots of parishioners around the City as well as people who worked with Sister Sabina in the schools around Coventry. May she rest in peace

Congratulations to Canon David Oakley, the Rector at Oscott College who will be Ordained Bishop of Northampton on March 19th. Please remember him in your prayers.
