Special Mass of St. Stephen in St. Chad's Cathedral

On Saturday 7th March there is a special Mass in St. Chad's Cathedral, our Diocesan Cathedral in Birmingham for all our Altar Servers and their families.

Mass is at 12noon on that Saturday. We will provide a coach for those Altar Serves and their families who are able to join us that day.

For now we ask you to save this date in your diary and a little closer to the day we will give you the times of departure.

Our Lady of Walsingham

From the 22nd February until 25th March there are 33 days. These 33 days have been given to us to prepare not only for the Feast of the Annunciation but also for the personal rededication of England as the Dowry of Mary.

It was in Walsingham that a copy of the holy house of Nazareth was built in the 11th century. Walsingham was a special place of pilgrimage for Monarchs and ordinary people. It was numbered among the great shrines throughout Christendom, but was sadly destroyed under the order of Henry VIII in the 16th century.

After years of prayer, martyrdom and hope, England will once again be known as Mary's Dowry.

We will have a special Mass on Wednesday 25th March at 7pm in Corpus Christi and a Holy Hour on Sunday 29th March at 4pm in St. Anne's to mark this wonderful occasion.

*When England returns to Walsingham
Our Lady will return to England*

Reading during Mass

A number of our young parishioners have take the initiative and asked to read during Mass on the weekend. They have up till now been reading the Second Reading and it has been a pleasure to listen to them read the Word of God.

2020 is the 'Year of The Word', a year marked by three themes, CELEBRATING, LIVING and SHARING. In both parishes there are even more young people who are preparing to celebrate the Sacraments, so that they can live a life more focused on Christ and so share in his mission.

After half-term, beginning of the weekend of 7th and 8th March Fr. David will be inviting those children who are preparing for the Sacraments in 2021 to participate in the Bidding prayers.
