Of your charity

Please pray for the souls of Kathleen Young, and Carol Flynn who have recently died.

Carol's graveside burial is on Wednesday 22nd April.

Kathleen's committal is on Friday 17th April.

Eternal rest, grant unto them O Lord...

Please keep in your prayers

Let us keep in our prayers all those who are ill at this time, especially those with the coronavirus. Also, let us prayer for those who work in our hospitals, care homes, and the community.

Lord in your mercy....hear our prayer.

A Spiritual Communion

For those times we can't have Mass, we can still reach out to the Lord by making a Spiritual Communion in prayer!

St. Thomas Aquinas once defined a Spiritual Communion as "an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament and in lovingly embracing Him as if we had actually received Him."

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Church Offerings

Like so many other charities the Church relies on the generosity of her members. At the moment because of the coronavirus many charities are going without, including our parishes. We are well aware of difficulties also on families at this time. So, if you are able and would like to pay using Standing Order to either St. Anne's' or Corpus Christi then please drop Fr. David an email for further information. Another option is to go onto the home page of the diocesan website – www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk and click on a donate button (top right). From there donations which can also be gift aided can be made to any parish via credit or debit card. Funds will initially be passed to the diocese but we will have reports available to allow us to pass them on to each parish, we will work the process out over the next week or 2 and much will depend on how much it is used. There are transaction charges levied by the card processing company so please do note therefore that standing order remains the most cost effective way for parishioners to donate. Another further option could be is to save your offerings until we meet again. Thank you for your continual support.

Latin

Victimae paschali laudes
Immolent Christiani.

Agnus redemit oves:
Christus innocens Patri
Reconciliavit peccatores.

Mors et vita duello
Confluxere mirando:
Dux vitae mortuus,
Regnat vivus.

Dic nobis Maria,
Quid vidisti in via?

Sepulcrum Christi viventis,
Et gloriam vidi resurgentis:

Angelicos testes,
sudarium, et vestes.

Surrexit Christus spes mea:
Praecedet suos in Galilaeam.

Scimus Christum surrexisse
A mortuis vere:
Tu nobis, victor Rex, miserere.
Amen.

English

Christians, to the Paschal victim offer your thankful praises!

A lamb the sheep redeemeth:
Christ, who only is sinless,
reconcileth sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended
in that combat stupendous:
the Prince of life, who died,
reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring
what you saw, wayfaring?

"The tomb of Christ, who is living,
the glory of Jesus' resurrection;

"Bright angels attesting,
the shroud and napkin resting.

"Yea, Christ my hope is arisen;
to Galilee he will go before you."

Christ indeed from death is risen,
our new life obtaining;
have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!
Amen.

Victimae Paschali Laudes Easter Sequence

From Easter Sunday morning Mass, until and including the following Sunday Mass, i.e. Divine Mercy Sunday the following 11th century hymn/sequence to the risen Christ is sung before the Gospel Acclamation.

We sing Christ's victory over death, the empty tomb, the announcement to the women by the angels, adding our own gratitude and petition.

Maybe this could be our own prayer of gratitude and petition to the Risen Lord.

Happy Easter!

Fr. David would like to wish you all a Happy Easter! It goes without saying that this has been the strangest Holy Week in living memory. Even though we haven't been physically together, please be assured that you have been close to me in my prayers and Masses.

Easter is a time of joy. We are all certainly indeed of the Easter message today amongst all the uncertainty around us.

Often you find that after a heavy down pour of rain there is sunshine and a rainbow. We have witnessed moments of sadness and despair, but also of hope and love. Let us continue to put our trust in the Lord, our good Shepherd who will lead us through the valley of darkness with his crook and staff and give us comfort.
