

Parish News & Notices

The Solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe invites us to reflect on the eternal values in life that take us to the Kingdom of Heaven. Our faith and good actions are paramount. "In so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me". The good deeds take us closer to the kingdom of heaven.

The month of the Holy Souls During the month of November, we remember to pray for our beloved dead. May the eternal light of the Lord shine on them.

Collecting Contact Details: All those who come to church are required to give their names and phone numbers for NHS track and trace. It is a government directive. The details will be kept safely by the Parish Priest.

The programme for private prayers at St. Osburg's Church:

The church will be opened for private prayers on the following days; Sunday, Tuesday and Friday at 1pm to 3pm. The daily Livestreaming Masses are on week days at 12:10pm, Saturday at 11:45am & 5:30pm, Sunday at 11:30am. All must put on mask when visiting the church for private prayers.

Fr. Sunday Evaristus, Fr. Sunday has come back from holidays, we thank the Lord for bringing him safe.

Walk with me Booklets for Advent 2020; Please pick a copy when you come for private prayers.

Kenelm Youth Trust: As part of our celebrations for National Youth Sunday, we remember in our prayers the work of our own Diocese Youth Service. Alton Castle, Soli Centre for Youth Ministry, BCYS and Chaplaincy, are firmly established as institutions in our Archdiocese. The pandemic has greatly affected their income as the residential side temporarily ceased in March. They continue to do great work both online, and in person when restriction allow. Please visit the kenelmyouthtrust.org.uk to see the latest report on their work. And also ways in which you might contribute to help KYT to be there for future generations.

The Catholic Universe: Please pay for the copy (£1.50)

CHRIST THE KING OF THE UNIVERSE

The unity of societies is centred on leadership which directs every individual to a common good. Leadership is central to the meaning survival of any human society and for the achievement of the common good for all. In a civil context, the political, social and economic aspects are emphasised but these are only temporary needs. Above every human need is that of spiritual fulfilment, rightly revealed by our Lord Jesus Christ through his preaching and life. 'Now after John was arrested Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying: "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent, and believe the gospel." (CCC.541). Believing and accepting the gospel is the means by which we enter the eternal kingdom of God, the common destiny for all.

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King of Universe. The readings remind us to be loyal to the requirements of the heavenly kingdom. In a common understanding, the leader protects and guides all those in the kingdom. "I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view" (Ezk34:11-12). Just as the Lord cares for us, we are expected to care for each other. "Come, you whom my Father has blessed ..., For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me" (Mtt25:34-36). The condition of belonging to the kingdom of God requires justice, honesty, generosity and charity. It is also a deeper reflection that when our hearts and thoughts are ruled by Christ, we shall be able to experience peace and love in the world. When we are guided and ruled by selfish attitudes, violence, resentment and lack of respect for life this will disrupt our journey of life. We are therefore, reminded to be guided by the Lord in order to attain eternal salvation. "And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all" (1Cor15:28).
