WE DO NOT HAVE AN OFFERTORY COLLECTION TAKEN AROUND DURING MASS BUT THERE ARE BASKETS AT THE FRONT AND SIDE DOORS OF THE CHURCH, IF YOU FORGET TO PUT YOUR OFFERING IN AS YOU COME TO MASS YOU CAN DO SO AT THE END OF MASS.

During the pandemic we are have witnessed smaller numbers attending church. Now the numbers are beginning to increase again. We look forward to when the restrictions are eased further. THANK YOU FOR THE LOVELY COMMENTS I HAVE RECEIVED THANKING ME FOR GUIDING THE PARISH DILIGENTLY THROUGH THE PANDEMIC.

Please do not be abusive to the stewards who are not imposing unnecessary rules upon you, but are helping ensure a safe celebration of Mass. Each parish follows the guidelines laid down by the government and the bishops of England and Wales, adapting them for each particular parish community. The size of the church building determines how many people can be accommodated safely. There may be an odd one who feel the guidelines come directly from the parish priest, but this is not the case.

Retired Priests prayer Cards. These are available for you to take home and keep in your prayers the retired priests of the diocese, As you can see by the amount of names on the card there are many! Each retired priest is receiving a card though the post and all parishes will be given prayer cards too.

Christ the King Community Lunch in July has been postponed until Monday 2nd August. This is due to Government Restrictions. Tickets already purchased will be valid for August.

You may recall a Pastoral Letter from Archbishop Bernard Longley was read out at Mass last week. It outlined the vision for the Archdiocese as we move forward.

Leaflets explaining The Diocesan Vision: Unfolding God's Plan will be available to take away next weekend. Please pick up a copy for yourself, and take copies for those who are unable to come to Mass.

More information on the Vision is available on www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk/vision

"OUR DAYS WOULD BE HAPPIER IF WE GAVE PEOPLE A BIT OF OUR HEARTS INSTEAD OF A PIECE OF OUR MINDS."

Fourteen people in the Rembrandt's painting of storm in the sea: In the Gardiner Museum in Boston there is a painting by Rembrandt entitled "The Storm on the Sea of Galilee." It is Rembrandt's interpretation of this scene. It shows panic etched on the faces of the disciples, as their small vessel is being raised up on a high wave, about to be crashed down. Two of the disciples are attempting to rouse Jesus who is asleep in the stern of the boat. But if you look more closely, you will discover that there is something that is not quite right. There are too many people in the picture. So you count them. There are fourteen. There should only be thirteen (twelve disciples and Jesus). But instead there are fourteen. It is then that you notice that one of the men in the boat is Rembrandt. He has painted himself into the picture. He has placed himself in the same boat. — Which is precisely what we should do. It is the way that we are supposed to interpret this passage. We are in the boat with Jesus, faithful but frightened. There is no immunity for any of us. We are caught up in the same fix. I suspect most of us would rather be numbered with the exceptions. Either we would like to believe that storms will never strike us or that Faith will never fail us

Mass on Tuesday will be via the web livestream only to communicate with those who are not able to attend Mass more closely.

Gossip is just a tool to distract people who have nothing better to do from feeling jealous of those few of us still remaining with noble hearts.

Gossip is when you hear something you like about someone you don't. Earl Wilson

All Masses are livestreamed via YouTube. Mass is celebrated during this pandemic in a way that we promote safety as a priority; stewards, sanitising, distancing, avoiding groups from different household socialising. There is no physical sign of peace given, Holy Communion is given at the end of Mass and then we are asked to quietly leave and not to mingle outside, but to head off home. For some who are vulnerable watching on the webcam is the option to take.

Please pray for those who have died recently, in the parish: Imelda Cunningham, William Barry Soden, Patsy Driscoll and Pollin Juliet Gnanaseelan, Mick Swift Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord...

Funerals are by family invite only.

Pray for the sick, Gerry Burke, Maisie Hope, Padda Hughes, Philip Gilheaney, and Michael Moten

Scripture Reflection

We need to remember that Jesus is always with us in the boat of our life. All of us are making a journey across the sea of time to the shore of eternity. Hence, it is natural that, occasionally, we all experience different types of violent storms in our lives: physical storms, emotional storms, and spiritual storms. We face storms of sorrow, doubt, anxiety, worry, temptation and passion. The storms we encounter in life are often what make us or break us. These storms can either bring us closer to God and one another or alienate us from God and others. And it is only Jesus who can still these storms for us. Jesus can give us real peace in the storm of sorrow. When we are totally depressed with sorrow Jesus assures us of the glory of the life to come. Jesus consoles us at the loss of our dear ones with the assurance of eternal life for them in the Heavenly home of God the Father where we, too, will live one day. When the storms of doubt seek to uproot the very foundations of our Faith, Jesus is there to still that storm, revealing to us his Divinity and the authority behind the words of the Holy Scripture. Jesus gives us peace in a tempest of doubt, tension and uncertainty, provided we humbly submit to Jesus' guidance. Jesus gives us peace in the storms of anxiety and worry about ourselves, about the unknown future, and about those we love. Jesus calms the storms of passion in people who have hot hearts and blazing tempers. Jesus captains the boat of our soul, not eliminating all storms but seeing to it that we do not sink, if we keep our Faith and persist in calling on God for help.
