Dear Parishioners,

We are now using the Confessional again; the extractor fan has been fitted for ventilation.

open ourselves to the inspiration that comes to us from Jesus, from the breath of the Spirit, which invites us to put it at the centre?"

The late Cardinal Martini writes:

God Bless,

"In Holy Communion - the Eucharist- the love of God manifests itself in its most disconcerting form and meets human beings disoriented by things immensely greater than themselves (and haven't we all been disoriented by this pandemic – something immensely greater than ourselves.)

The Eucharist at the centre is the goal of a long journey. To humbly confess our faults or even simply our uncertainties and difficulties is the first step required to rediscover the inexhaustible riches of this mystery.

The fundamental "serious" question remains: do we really know how to celebrate God's mystery? Is it really a value for all of us, a supreme value? Does the Mass transform our life? Do we feel drawn to the Mass? Is the Eucharist truly the centre of everything for us, or as Christians do we at least live our commitment to try and make it the centre, to try and

Fr. Tony.

LiveSimply Prayer

Compassionate and loving God, you created the world for us all to share, a world of beauty and plenty. Create in us a desire to live simply, so that our lives may reflect your generosity. Creator God, you gave us responsibility for the earth, a world of riches and delight. Create in us a desire to live sustainably, so that those who follow after us may enjoy the fruits of your creation. God of peace and justice, you give us the capacity to change, to bring about a world that mirrors your wisdom. Create in us a desire to act in solidarity, so that the pillars of injustice crumble and those now crushed are set free. Amen.
