I love you, Lord, my strength. This strength is calling us to be like Jesus, wherever we are, whoever we are, whatever we think of ourselves. Jesus invites us to live as he lived – to love as he loved, to speak as he spoke, to offer our lives as He offered his, to do what he did, – to do even greater things. We can only do this in his strength.

A REFLECTION

we are not here to play, to dream, to drift.
 We have great things to do and loads to lift.
 Shun not the struggle: face it, 'tis god's gift.
 We do not walk alone: the Lord is near.
 His call rings out: "I'm with you - have no fear!"
 the weary, troubled heart to him is dear.
 It matters not how deep entrenched the wrong,
 how hard the battle goes, the day how long.
 Stand up! Walk on! Tomorrow comes the song.

MY GOD, I AM SORRY
 for my sins with all my heart.
 In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things.
 I firmly intend, with your help,
 to do penance, to sin no more,
 and to avoid whatever leads me
 to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.
 Amen.
