If a kingdom is divided against itself, it cannot last

It can be a great feeling to feel aggrieved, and to be able to blame someone else for why things went wrong. We can be all prone to it, and our blame culture certainly encourages it. And sometimes our grievance is right - we have been wronged, sometimes seriously. But obviously, sometimes it was more 50-50, and sometimes it was our fault. Aggressively blaming the other person rarely succeeds in doing anything but dividing. Adam immediately blames Eve; Eve immediately blames the serpent. They're both right, but it would also have been right to tell God, 'I got it wrong, sorry' - right, and more constructive.

The scribes can't see any good in Jesus. That's a terrible place to be! Think about it, if you can't see any good in Jesus, then you are in a dark place. They decide his power must come from the devil - which isn't oozing logic. If we can take responsibility for our failings, above blaming others; if we can see the good in others, even when there's wrong too, we're much more likely to unite rather than divide.

Safeguarding: The Parish operates in accordance with Statutory Safeguarding Guidance and the National and Archdioceses policies & procedures at all times. Our Parish Safeguarding Representatives are Caroline Ward, Pat Timmons & Rosaria Petrucci. They can be contacted at: sg.ccandstanne.covty@rcaob.org.uk or alternatively the Diocesan Safeguarding team can be contacted on 0121 230 6240/ safeguarding@rcaob.org.uk if you have any concern.

Dear Parishioners,

Well, we certainly did have glorious weather for our CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION last Sunday. Our First Holy Communion children looked amazing, leading us. It was great to have members of the Jacobite community and AFCM, who are connected with our parish, attend as well, and a few others from the deanery. A good turn out all in all, and God was glorified. Alongside the amazing and reverent First Holy Communion Masses, it was a very blessed weekend. Thanks to all who made it possible. Please book Corpus Christi feast in your diary for next year (22nd June)!

I think I've sent photos to all of the First Holy Communion parents who handed in the envelope for them. If I've got any wrong, please let me know. Any others want theirs, please hand in the envelope.

SACRED HEART CENTENARY MASS: Please do remember our twin parish of Sacred Heart this weekend, as they celebrate the centenary of the church. Mass is 2pm Sunday.

CORPUS CHRISTI COMMUNITY CENTRE Deacon Keith will be talking to us at Corpus Christi after Masses this weekend. Things are going well, but just as we mucked in to keep the costs of demolition down, so we need to muck in to keep the cost of construction down. Only helping with lifting walls and stuff - nothing technical. Deacon Keith will explain more, but it's younger men we need - and the more who volunteer, the less each has to do. Please be generous in listening and volunteering. It's a great way for us to own our centre.

When it is built, the volunteers we will need most are people helping serving cuppas in the café, and people prepared to ring up the housebound as part of Linkline. You might start thinking in advance if that could include you.

SILVER JUBILEE It's my 25th anniversary of priesthood on Wednesday 19th June. I'd like to celebrate it with you, with an 11am Mass. We've decided to keep it simpler and have it in Corpus Christi church, but I hope some parishioners from both churches will come and share in thanking God for the last quarter of a century! There's a buffet afterwards, under cover, on the lawn.

Please keep praying for our pupils who are taking GCSEs, A levels and University exams at this time. Rather than me!

LECTIONARIES In Advent we are all changing to a new lectionary! Was it 14 years ago, we had a new Missal - a new Mass translation? This time it's the readings. We'll have to decide what books to buy for both parishes - think the normal ones are £700 for the set of four. Then there's yourselves. A lot of you have missals, which will be obsolete by December, and of course, all those parish readings books at St Anne's will be too. That might seem like a lot of waste. However, it doesn't happen very often at all! And it is also a new opportunity to hear the Word of God in a different way, through a slightly different translation. Anything that refreshes us in the Word of God is a good thing! It does make our my Day by Day books an even more attractive proposition, and Universalis - the online version for a one-off payment of £10, is also worth a look. Any thoughts, I'm happy to hear them.

June My Day by Day still available, £1.

Yours in Jesus and Mary,

Prayer to St Michael

to protect the Church, our parish and our churches

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in this day of battle, be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil;
may God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.
