Deep listening through a new podcast

A new podcast for Catholic audiences has launched this week. The All Kinds of Catholic podcast has been created by Theresa Alessandro who hosts the weekly episodes. A new conversation with a different Catholic guest will be released on Wednesdays. The dialogue focusses on how each person is living their faith in the world today – with all the hopes, joys, and disappointments that any of us might experience.

Fresh from working at two different Catholic organisations and with her own lifelong experience of being a Catholic, Theresa felt called to develop this project in which she is joined by Catholic people who are often not in the public eye. She reports, 'I have talked to so many 'ordinary' Catholic people in my work and in my life, whose journeys in faith have resonated and given me such encouragement and affirmation – and sometimes challenge. It has been hard work learning how to produce and distribute a podcast, but it is a privilege to host the conversation with my guests. Each one is somehow beautiful, far from 'ordinary', and certainly spiritually nourishing.'

The All Kinds of Catholic podcast is especially timely during the current synodal process when we are asked to listen deeply to one another. In the first episode, Peter shares how his faith has been shaped by growing up in a Catholic family, serving the church from a young age, starting a new chapter in another country, and using his skills and experience to build community and to advocate for climate change: 'You brought me here, so what do You want me to do?' In the second episode, Maggie shares how she and her sister used to 'race Jesus up the stairs' to the third-floor flat they grew up in.

Taken together, these stories illustrate the image Pope Francis uses in Evangelii Gaudium, of a 'chaotic...genuine experience of fraternity, a caravan of solidarity, a sacred pilgrimage' experienced by Catholic people 'stepping into this floodtide' of life. Tune in, wherever you get your podcasts, and listen to Catholic people sharing their faith journey with you.

Safeguarding

Safeguarding is ensuring that our children and vulnerable adults are kept safe. It is the responsibility of all people within the Parish. If you see anything that could be harming to children or vulnerable adults, say something and report it to the Parish Priest, Safeguarding Representative, or the Safeguarding Team at the Diocese.

See it, Say it, Report it. Dear Parishioners, we wish to keep our Parish communities safe, and should you want to carry out a role or set up a group or activity, please do let the Parish Priest and your Safeguarding Representative know. They can support you with this and ensure that processes including Safer Recruitment paperwork and follow up is completed. Thank you for your support in keeping our Parish community safe.

Diocesan Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, we ask you to send labourers into your harvest.

Inspire, in the hearts of your people, vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless our families with a spirit of generosity, so that those whom you call have the courage to give themselves to your Church in faith.

Through Christ our Lord, Amen
St John Vianney. Pray for us.
