THE WORD OF THE LORD

The theme of today's readings: Suffering and Rejection for Christ

First reading Ezekiel 2:2-5 In the Old Testament God's holy prophets spoke his words to the people, but the people didn't always appreciate the message. For example, God sent the priest-prophet Ezekiel as his "voice" to the covenant people suffering in the Babylonian exile who were "defiant and obstinate" God told Ezekiel to preach his message to them "whether they listen or not." God places the same obligation on his ordained ministers today when they preach on difficult topics like adultery, divorce, abortion, and sexual identity. God's message is not always welcomed, but it must be preached, even if it makes the messenger unpopular.

Psalms 123 The psalmist completed his journey to the holy city of Jerusalem. As he entered the Temple, he lifted his eyes to the Lord in heaven, appealing for God's help. When addressed to our Lord Christ Jesus, enthroned in the heavenly Temple, this prayer has a deeper meaning for Christians. In his ascension to the Father Jesus transcended all created things and received dominion over heaven and earth. "Our eyes are on the LORD our God" as we continue to look for him while we struggle in our earthly existence. We await the fullness of our salvation when Jesus returns in glory to gather his elect and to judge the proud and arrogant.

Second reading 2Corinthians 12:7-10 St. Paul writes about his struggles and hardships in his mission to carry the Gospel of salvation to the Gentiles. In addition to the opposition to his message, he endured a physical affliction and petitioned the Lord three times to heal him. The Lord did not heal Paul, but gave him the grace to accept his suffering, and through it made him a more compassionate apostle to the Gentiles.

Gospel Mark 6:1-6 Jesus experienced rejection like God's Old Testament prophets. Even the people of Nazareth, his hometown, exhibited closed minds and obstinacy of hearts when they rejected his teaching, as recounted in today's Gospel. Our readings remind us of the warning Jesus gave his disciples at the end of the Beatitudes. He told them and us: "Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven" (Matthew 5:11).

OUR CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS BEGIN!

It was wonderful to see church so full of parishioners of all ages and representing different areas of parish life last Tuesday evening when the Archbishop celebrated Mass to begin our centenary celebrations. Thank you to all those who were able to attend. It was a very uplifting and beautiful occasion, made so by the hard work and dedication of many people. My thanks to you all for your preparations for the Mass and the lovely buffet afterwards, and for your commitment to the parish. Our thanks too to Con McHugh who has provided us with an excellent album of photos of the evening at the link below. The album is also on the deanery website and there is a write-up on the diocesan website too.

PARISH HISTORY 1924-2024: Our First 100 Years Parishioner Paul Palmer has compiled an excellent history of All Souls, 1924-2024 for our centenary celebrations. Copies are available at the back of church and in the resource centre, suggested donation £5 to cover costs. You can pay by cash or use the card readers.
