FR PATRICK WRITES

The mystery of love is that God loves, and we are to love too. What kind of love is this that we are to demonstrate by our living, our loving? St Paul says "Mend your ways, live in peace and harmony, greet each other with a kiss." A kiss is a sign of respect, of affection, a way of resolving to live in peace. Pope John Paul would kiss the ground of the countries he visited. Mother Teresa would kiss the wounds of the poor. Our lives kiss the surface of the earth for a few short years and as they do so we anticipate our eternal lives brushing heaven's shores. Finally the love of God , Father, Son and Spirit will welcome us to heaven where our kisses are motivated purely by adoration and thanksgiving
